Combined internal uncusectomy and decompressive craniectomy for the treatment of severe closed head injury: experience with 80 cases

To the Readership: An error occurred at submission and was perpetuated during the publication process in the paper “Combined internal uncusectomy and decompressive craniectomy for the treatment of severe closed head injury: experience with 80 cases” (J Neurosurg 108:74–79, 2008; DOI: 10.3171/JNS/2008/108/01/0074). The authors’ names were incorrectly listed as Chibbaro Salvatore, M.D., Marsella Marco, M.D., Romano Antonio, M.D., Ippolito Salvatore, M.D., and Benericetti Eugenio, M.D., with the authors’ surnames appearing prior to their first names.

The correct listing of the authors’ names is Salvatore Chibbaro, M.D., Marco Marsella, M.D., Antonio Romano, M.D., Salvatore Ippolito, M.D., and Eugenio Benericetti, M.D.

We apologize to the readership for this error. This article has been corrected online as of August 28, 2009.
