

NEW SUBMISSION CHECKLIST

Please upload this checklist with your submission. Failure to submit a new submission checklist, or not adhering to its guidelines, will result in a delay in the review of your submission. The submission may be returned to you for correction. We also strongly suggest that you use our Manuscript Template when formatting your paper for submission.

Title Page

- Did you include the appropriate subtitle (illustrative case[s] or patient series)?
- Are all authors listed with their first and last names and highest academic degrees?
- Does the affiliations list include “department, institution, city, state, and country (if outside the U.S.)” of each affiliation?
- If the authors are at different institutions, is this designated with superscripted numbers, not including parentheses “()” or brackets “[]”?
- Is the corresponding author’s name, institution and email address provided for correspondence?
- If the abstract of your paper has been previously presented, or published, is the name, date, and place of the meeting listed on your title page under a “Previous Presentations” subheading?
- Did you include the element counts (abstract word count; text word count; number of references; number of tables and/or figures; and number of videos)?

Abstract

- Is the abstract structured with the appropriate heading and sections (Background; Observations; and Lessons)?
- Is the word count within the limit for your manuscript type?

Text

- If abbreviations are used, are they defined?
- Is the word count within the limit for your manuscript type?
- Is the manuscript divided into the appropriate sections (Introduction; Illustrative Case[s] or Study Description; Discussion [with Observations and Lessons])?

References

- Have you followed the format for references outlined in the Guidelines for References?
- Are all references listed, and cited in the text, in consecutive, numerical order of appearance?
- Are all references cited within the text with superscripted numbers, not including parentheses “()” or brackets “[]”?
- Is the number of references within the limit for your manuscript type?

Figures

- Did you review the Guidelines for Figures?
- Have you included figure legends at the end of the manuscript?
- Are all figures cited in the text and numbered in the order in which they are cited?
- Has each fully-composited figure been submitted as a separate file with the figure number included in the file name? Do not submit figure parts (e.g., A/B; left/right; upper/lower) as separate files.
- Are the files in a preferred format (TIFF, JPEG, or PDF)? Other formats may not be accepted.
- Are the figures high-resolution images?
- Is the combined number of figures and tables within the limit for your manuscript type?

Tables

- Did you review the Guidelines for Tables?
- Are all tables cited in the text and numbered in the order in which they are cited?
- Have you defined all abbreviations used in the tables?
- Were the tables created in Microsoft Word using the Table tool?
- Are the tables grouped together in one file uploaded separately from the manuscript?
- Is the combined number of tables and figures within the limit for your manuscript type?

Videos

- Have you included video legends at the end of the manuscript?
- Are all videos cited in the text and numbered in the order in which they are cited?
- Has each video been submitted as a separate file in an acceptable format?
- Is the number of videos within the limit for your manuscript type?

Supplemental Data:

- Have you followed the formatting for Supplemental Data according to our Guidelines for Supplemental Data?
- Are supplemental data files correctly labeled and, if cited in the text, called out using the same label?
- Are supplemental data legends (both for figures and/or tables) included in the supplemental data files?
- If reference citations are included in the supplemental data, did you create a supplemental data reference list?
- Did you agree to pay the $100 supplemental data processing fee within the submission site?
